

Adrienne Beamon

Adrienne works for the State of Indiana and serves in the capacity of Legislative Assistant for the Indiana Senate Democratic Caucus. She received her Bachelor of Science degree from Purdue University and is currently pursuing a Master of Science in Accounting degree from Indiana University's Kelly School of Business.

Besides her involvement with AGA, Adrienne is very active with her church where she serves as the church secretary and is a member of the Board of Trustees. Adrienne enjoys family time and traveling with her husband, Gerald, and their children.